

The Safety Project

Partnering with People with Intellectual Disabilities

Volunteers Needed for Research Study on Personal Safety

Men and Women with Intellectual Disabilities
Needed to Volunteer for
"The Safety Class" Study

If...

- You are at least 18 years old
- Your disability started before age 18
- Your disability makes a difference in how you learn, or understand, or live on your own without any help

CONTACT US TODAY and ask about taking part in "The Safety Class" Study!

This study involves a personal safety class for people with intellectual disabilities.
The University of Montana is partnering with your Center for Independent Living on this study.

Telephone: Please contact Jose Pena at (714)621-3300 ext 340

Name of Center: Dayle McIntosh Center

Location: 501 North Brookhurst Street, Suite 102, Anaheim, CA 92801

If you take part in this study, you will receive a small payment.

This research study, which has the approval of The University of Montana Institutional Review Board, is funded by the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research.